

As a member of the House Appropriations Committee, I was proud to secure funding for the International Institute for Nanotechnology at Northwestern University. The institute will make Illinois the nanotechnology capital of the world. This very tiny innovation will create enormous changes in everything from medicine to electronics to optics. Nanoscience is attracting the greatest scientific minds in the world and we should be proud to have this institute in our own backyard.